Teaching and learning South African choral music in the oral tradition

Demonstration choir: Boston City Singers Jane Money, Artistic Director

Saturday, Nov. 15, 2008, 9am–1pm

(registration & coffee at 8:15 am)

Williams School, 141 Grove St, Auburndale, MA 02466

Clinician: Mollie Stone

Mollie Stone, Associate Conductor of the Chicago Children's Choir, holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Amherst College, a Master of Music degree in conducting from Westminster Choir College, and has studied at the University of Cape Town. In 2001, Ms. Stone received a grant from the Henry J. Kaiser

Family Foundation to travel to South Africa to create a DVD, "Vela Vela", on how to teach black South African choral music in the oral tradition. Last year, Ms. Stone returned to South Africa on another generous grant to study how South Africans are using choral music in the struggle against HIV. Ms. Stone currently gives workshops on black South African choral music across the U.S.
