Michael Brewer was director of music at Chetham's, Britain's largest specialist music school, for 20 years. During that time he became firmly established as a leading figure in the choral music world. In January, 1995, Michael made the decision to leave Chetham's to concentrate on his demanding schedule of choral activities in Britain and abroad. Michael came to choral prominence by winning the international radio competition Let the People's Sing twice, firstly with the Latymer Madrigal Group and then with Chetham's own Chamber Choir. Since then he has undertaken workshops and concerts throughout the world. A busy adjudicator, Michael also gives regular masterclasses for singers and teachers. He is musical director of the world renowned National Youth Choir of Great Britain, a board member of the British Federation of Young Choirs and the Association of British Choral Directors. Michael was honored by the Queen in the 1995 New Year Honours List.
